Newton Veterinary Hospital Welcomes Veterinarian Dr. Kevin T. Shimel to the Practice

Newton, NJ -- Newton Veterinary Hospital (NVH), the largest veterinary hospital in Sussex County, welcomes Dr. Kevin T. Shimel to their team of veterinarians, announced NVH President, Dr. Don Costlow.

A native New Yorker, Dr. Shimel is now a resident of Hoboken, NJ. He was an analytical chemist in the pharmaceutical industry for several years before attending Iowa State University's College of Veterinary Medicine and graduating in 1996. During his 13 years as a veterinarian, Dr. Shimel has worked as an emergency clinician, a general practitioner and also spent some years in an exclusively feline practice.

In addition to being a veterinarian, Dr. Shimel has bred, owned and trained Borzoi (also known as Russian Wolfhounds) for almost 30 years and is an AKC dog show judge. Also, his photography has been exhibited at shows in the U.S. and Europe.

“We welcome Dr. Shimel to our talented team of veterinarians at the Newton Veterinary Hospital,” said Dr. Costlow. “He brings many unique skills with him and I’m sure he will be an outstanding asset to our organization.”

Dr. Shimel’s responsibilities will include diagnosing illnesses, prescribing medication, performing surgeries and interpreting radiographs and blood work.
