Newton Veterinary Hospital's Dr. Don Costlow Is Named President of the Newton Rotary Club

Newton, NJ – Dr. Don Costlow, President of the Newton Veterinary Hospital (NVH), the largest veterinary hospital in Sussex County, was recently named the President of the Newton Chapter of the Rotary Club. Dr. Costlow, who has been a member of the Newton Rotary since 1997, was on the executive board and held a variety of positions before becoming President of the Newton Chapter on June 1st.

As the Newton Rotary President, Dr. Costlow will be responsible for the operations of the entire club, including community service projects, attendance, and organizing as well as presiding over board meetings.

"I am truly honored to be named President of the Newton Rotary," says Dr. Costlow. "The ideals of the Rotary Club, including maintaining high ethical standards and providing quality service to others, are the same standards I have set for myself both professionally and personally. The Rotary Club provides a way for individuals to extend those ideals even further by giving back to their community and the world at large.”

Rotary International is the world’s first service club organization. Rotarians provide humanitarian service, encourage high ethical standards in all vocations and help build good will and peace in the world. More than 1.2 million members volunteer their time and talent to further the Rotary motto: Service Above Self. For more information about the Newton Rotary, visit www.newtonrotary.org.
