Newton Veterinary Hospital Promotes Seven Hard-Working Staff Members

Newton, NJ – The Newton Veterinary Hospital (NVH), the largest veterinary hospital in Sussex County, recently promoted seven members of their hard-working staff, announced NVH President, Dr. Don Costlow.

- Jeanne Dishinger, who lives in Byram and has been employed at NVH since January ‘06, was promoted from Bed & Breakfast Manager to Technician Manager.
- Michele Fritz, who lives in Sussex and has been employed at NVH since April ‘05, was promoted from Technician to Blood Bank Manager.
- Karen Loree, who lives in Lafayette and has been employed at NVH since December ‘01, was promoted from Client Relations Manager to Practice Manager.
- Jan Many, who lives in Lafayette and has been employed at NVH since September ‘99, was promoted from Client Services Manager to Inventory/Compliance Manager.

- Cindy Matulewicz, who lives in Stillwater and has been employed at NVH since May '03, was promoted from Payroll Manager to Human Resources Manager.
- Jennifer Sorg, who lives in Stillwater and has been employed with NVH since July '03, was promoted from Training Manager to Client Services Manager.
- Donna Van Stone, who lives in Branchville and has been employed with NVH since May '03, was promoted from Client Services Representative to Bed and Breakfast Manager.

"I am very fortunate to have found such an impressive team of individuals for my support staff at the Newton Veterinary Hospital," says Dr. Costlow. "They are an important and necessary part of the hospital and they deserve to be recognized and rewarded for doing such a great job. Each person earned their promotion and I'm proud of them all."
